

POLICY FOR MEMBERSHIP TO THE BEREA RECREATION CENTER FOR MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES

Effective March 1, 2012

Over the course of many years, the unwritten policy of the Berea Recreation Center regarding free admission to members of the armed forces has been inconsistent in application. The following policy, effective March 1, 2012, provides clarification.

A membership number will be assigned and shall be used upon entry to the facility.

Active Duty Military	Berea residents	FREE SIX-MONTH MEMBERSHIP
-----------------------------	------------------------	----------------------------------

Berea residents on active duty stationed in the area or home on leave may receive a free six-month membership to the Recreation Center.

Two forms of identification demonstrating Berea residency is required. Proof may include a photo ID (drivers' license), imprinted check or mail (other than junk mail) addressed to you. If you are home on leave, a photo ID and some evidence that you are staying with your Berea family while on leave is required.

Proof of residency and an active duty military photo ID is required for new memberships and renewals.

Active Duty Military	Non-residents	$17.50 – SIX MONTH MEMBERSHIP
-----------------------------	----------------------	---------------------------------------

Non-residents on active duty may join the Recreation Center at our lowest membership rate. An active duty military photo ID is required. The ID card must be presented for new memberships and renewals.

National Guard/Reserves	Berea residents	$17.50 – SIX MONTH MEMBERSHIP
--------------------------------	------------------------	---------------------------------------

Berea resident members of the National Guard or Reserves may join the Recreation Center at our lowest membership rate. Two forms of identification proving residency are required. Proof may include a photo ID (drivers' license), imprinted check or mail (other than junk mail) addressed to you.

Proof of residency and military ID, demonstrating your National Guard or Reserves enlistment is required for new memberships and renewals.

Recruits (Delayed Enlistment)	Berea residents	FREE SIX-MONTH MEMBERSHIP
--------------------------------------	------------------------	----------------------------------

Berea residents entering the military on a delayed enlistment basis may join the Recreation Center at no cost.

Two forms of identification proving residency are required. Proof may include a photo ID (drivers' license), imprinted check or mail (other than junk mail) addressed to you.

A letter from your recruiting or commanding officer must be presented to substantiate your delayed enlistment status. If delayed enlistment extends beyond six months, proof of residency and delayed enlistment status is required..

Others not specified above may join the Berea Recreation Center at regular membership rates.
Please check with your city of residence to determine if similar benefits are offered.

Thank you for your service.

Your sacrifices are sincerely appreciated.
